

DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

I, Michael Li, Partner of Beijing Jincheng Tongda & Neal Law Firm, request to designate the information contained in my submission to the CBSA representing the application for a normal value review into Upholstered Domestic Seating ("UDS") originating in or exported from China on behalf of my client Gu Jia Intelligent Household Jiaxing Co., Ltd., and identified in section A of this statement as confidential.

Section A – briefly list the nature of the information you wish to designate as confidential

The confidential information deleted in the non-confidential representation and the non-confidential attachments pertains to: product information, marketing documents.

Section B – provide reasons why you request that the information be treated confidential

Business competition and customer relations require that any information of this nature remain confidential as the release of this information would cause significant prejudice and undue harm to Gu Jia Intelligent Household Jiaxing Co., Ltd. and its business in general if other companies or individuals learned about the inner workings of the company.
